

The One Night Stands of the Pick-Up Artist

One Night Stands is the topic that I want to share with you today.

It was after I had a couple of solid pickups, that I really understand how easy this one night stands could be.

Mesmerizing what I did before, I realize that it was the beginning of major "bad belief overhaul" to my success

I started to think that women wants to be hookup and that they really wanted me

I also started to think of myself as an attractive, desirable guy (even though I'm far from what's typically considered good-looking).

Now about 75% of my students come to me with one main goal - they want to sleep with more women.

While the others have the aim to find their someone special but I don't think these aim are mutually exclusive.

You see, if you're looking for one special girl, you're gonna have to meet a good amount of woman so you can make the best choice.

Finding and meeting your someone special can be a daunting task, if you don't know how to meet women.

Getting started is a common phase that a good pickup artist needs to go through. In order to meet and sleep with LOT OF WOMEN, he should learn to think and behave in a new ways.

He's like a kid in a candy store, taking full advantage of his new powers!

In order for me to snap out of my old way of thinking, a period of learning is necessary so that I can start to internalize my new reality. That I can be attractive and desirable to women and above all, women will be obsess to sleep with me.

Bare in mind that it is important to have a fast and natural sensual encounter when you are with women, for you to get the goal in your hand.

I'm referring to a same day lays or popularly known as "ONS" One-Night Stand.

Now if you've never had a one night stand, or maybe got lucky a couple of times when you were drunk, having a one-night 'stands at-will' can seem just as out-of-reach as having a great girlfriend.

But it's actually pretty easy, if you know what you are doing.

But a lot of men are making a way that is too hard for themselves, where they never be able to gain the initial sensual experience that will lead them to feel like "natural."

I know you want to get BETTER with woman and above of it to MASTER THE GAME. If not you will not read this, right?

Mastery of the game comes from within and it start right through your mindset and leads to a visible results that form New Beliefs in your mind.

These new beliefs become the foundation for your new reality, where you naturally attract women without even thinking about it.
